

Apps to Check Out

What it does: Uses games and challenges to help develop different types of thinking and learning styles.
Who it helps: Students learning to hone in their focusing abilities.

What it does: Allows pre-writing and brainstorming in spoken, drawn, or typed form.

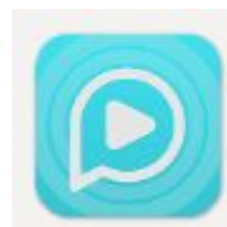

Who it helps: Students who would benefit from jotting down ideas in ways other than hand-written.

What it does: Adds more grammar supports to keyboards to suggestion more grammar-friendly writing.
Who it helps: Students who have a basic understanding of grammar, but need a little help pointing out questionable sentences and frames.

What it does: For $7/month, you can scan text and it will read it aloud.

Who it helps: Students who are auditory learners.

What it does: Allows family and friends make videos to use for alarm/schedule videos.
Who it helps: Students who need encouragement and organization.